Appalling Casualties From Yesterday's Boiler Explosion Which Occurred in That City.

The Penney's Injector company's plant occupied half a square at the corner of Abbot street and Brooklyn avenue. It was composed of two brick buildings, separated by a sixteen foot alley. The rear building, in which the boiler was located and which was completely destroyed, was three stories in height, 54 feet in depth and 100 feet in width. The boiler room was on the first floor. The first floor was utilized as the engine and boiler room and a room for testing the output of the plant. The finishing and brass manufacturing department was located in the second floor, and the third floor was devoted to the foundry. It is said that not over 35 men were at work in the various departments of this rear building when the explosion occurred. There were four boilers in the plant, two horizontal ones which furnished steam for the engines and two vertical boilers which were used solely to test injectors. It was the horizontal boiler that was in use this morning, which let go and caused the awful loss of life.

The awful crash came without the slightest warning. Those in the front building said it seemed like the concussion of an immense cannon. The floors and roof of the rear building bulged upward and then crashed down with their heavy loads of machinery and foundry apparatus. Walls, roofs and all dropped into a shapeless mass of debris. Windows in houses for a block around were broken by the concussion, and flying bricks filled the neighborhood yards. A dense cloud of dust arose, and as it settled and was succeeded by denser clouds of smoke and steam, agonized cries began to come from the heap of tangled wood, metal and bricks. Those who were only partly buried frantically dug themselves out and then as energetically turned to digging for their comrades who were buried deeper, were feverishly throwing and pulling the debris out into Brooklyn avenue.

Engineer Riley was among the first to be dug out from the wreck. His escape was little short of miraculous. When the boiler let go he was knocked to the floor and one of the smaller testing boilers was blown over his prostrate form in such a way that he ended up on some debris shield above him, thereby forming a shield that kept the falling timbers, bricks and machinery from crushing him.

The escaping steam, however, burned him severely. After his arrival at Grace Hospital Riley's first words were, "How did it happen? The engine and boilers were all right."

Gradually the rescuers worked their way down through the pile. By this time there were no cries or groans to aid them, for the flames had destroyed those unfortunate who were not killed by the explosion or the fall. But the work of rescue continued with unabated haste. When a heavy beam or piece of shafting was encountered a team of horses was driven in and the piece of wreckage hauled to the street. Stretcher bearers stood beside the delvers and bore away the burned and blackened bodies. In several cases the charred corpses were so hot when recovered that they could scarcely be handled by the undertakers and assistants.

The property loss, according to Secretary Childs, is about $180,000.

The firm carried $70,000 fire and some boiler insurance.

Subscriptions for the relief of the sufferers have been started.

THE WEATHER.

Partly cloudy tonight and Thursday.

TOOK LAUDANUM

Attempt of a Well Known Young Man to Die.

Love and Financial Affairs Alleged to Be the Cause of His Act.

Mr. William Smith, a familiar figure about the hotel offices, and a veterinary surgeon, attempted suicide yesterday afternoon, about 8 o'clock by taking a large dose of laudanum and inhaling chloroform in his room at the Commercial house, corner Third and Jefferson streets.

Mr. Smith had for several days been acting as assistant clerk at the Palmer in the absence of Hon. Chas. Reed, the proprietor, and yesterday seemed to be ill, and went to his room. Soon after he had gone to bed a caller found him in a semi-conscious condition. An alarm was then raised and Dr. Robertson summoned. He soon had the patient out of danger and this morning he is much better and will recover. He is not inclined to talk of the matter and all that can be gleaned of the affair is that he had been in love with a young lady. It is also said that he secured $75 from a bank and the note falling due found him unable to settle. He preferred death to exposure, and to this is attributed the attempt at suicide.

CIRCUIT COURT.

COMMISSIONER MAKES A REPORT OF THE PADUCAH BASEBALL ASSOCIATION.

The commissioner's report in the case of M. Bloom and others against the Paducah Baseball Association was presented and showed funds enough to pay a pro rata of 25 cents on the dollar which was ordered. The total amount of the claims against the association from eighteen different creditors are estimated at about $3,740.19.

In the case of J. W. Hughes and others against Susan C. Hughes the commissioner produced seven separate deeds to Jessie, Eppy, Gracie, William R. Verna, Birdie and Vernice Hughes, which were ordered recorded on the order books.

The case of William Floyd against the Paducah Street Railway company was reinstated on the docket and a mandate from the court of appeals filed for record reversing the judgment and ordering a new trial in the circuit court.

A judgment for the plaintiff for $334.65 was filed in the case of National Wall Paper Co. against C. C. Lee.

In the case of Pat Halloran and others against Manah Cowlin the exceptions of J. D. Moynot to the commissioner's report were sustained and the sale ordered set aside. An order, setting aside the submission and the judgment was also made in the case.

In the case of Annie Scott against William Scott, J. D. Moynot, attorney for non-resident, filed his report and was allowed the regular $5 for his services.

UNION HOTEL

This is What the New Miner's Camp Will Be Called.

THE TRIALS ARE ON TODAY

Judge Hall Refuses to Return the Confiscated Property Seized Monday.

AN ATTACHMENT IS PROBABLE

Madisonville, Nov. 27.—The twenty-one union miners arrested Sunday were arraigned today, and there are many absent witnesses. Lumber is being hauled to build a "union hotel," as the Nortonville rendezvous will be called. In a conversation with Thomas Rooney, a member of the official board of the United Mine Workers of America, it was learned that the new camp was established with fifty charter members, and one large tent.

President James D. Wood and Vice President Kit Barnaby, Board Member Reed and Attorneys Everett Jennings and Jerrold Johnson called on Judge Hall yesterday for the purpose of making a formal demand of the judge to return the tents belonging to the United Mine Workers of America that were taken by the sheriff last Sunday, when the campers were arrested and lodged in jail. Entering the office, the compliments of the day were exchanged, then, refusing an invitation from Judge Hall to be seated, and after a moment's hesitation, President Wood said:

"Judge Hall, I understand that you have in your possession some of the property belonging to the United Mine Workers of America?"

Judge Hall—Yes, sir.

President Wood—I have come to ask that you return at once all of the property belonging to the United Mine Workers of America in your possession to the place from which it was removed.

Judge Hall declined to grant the request of Wood. This action on the part of the union officials is the formal notification that an attachment will be issued against County Judge Hall for the recovery of the union goods.

When the cases were taken up, the defendants swore Judge Hall off the bench. Magistrate Jace will try the prisoners.

When the preparations for trial were complete, the miners waived examination, and were held to answer at the February term of court, and all released on their own recognizance.

He was fined in the same court some time ago by non-appearance but was given another trial as he claims that he misunderstood the date of the trial.

GOVERNMENT TROOPS LOSING

Fighting Near Panama Yesterday and Today—The Losses.

Panama, Nov. 27.—There was desperate fighting yesterday near San Pablo, which was continued today. The government troops are losing heavily.

The Colombian gunboat Gen. Pinzon reappeared in Colon harbor yesterday. Her commander said there were only 100 men out of the original 600 troops carried by that vessel now on board the gunboat. The others had been landed at Porto Bello, about ten miles distant from Colon. The presumption is that the 600 men are marching overland to join the government forces under Gen. Alban, at Mamei. The ground they have to cover is difficult, and the troops will doubtless occupy a few days in reaching their destination.

The Liberals retreated from Empress owing to lack of ammunition. They admit having lost sixty men in killed and wounded at Empress, and that among the number was Col. Cys, but they claim that the government loss was over 150 men in killed and wounded.

The armored train which went over the railroad having on board Capt. Perry of the Iowa and machine guns and flying the American flag was sent as a demonstrative force and will not be continued daily. Passenger trains however, will carry a guard.

An overdue passenger train with a marine guard on board arrived bringing news to the effect that Gen. Alban with about 300 government troops has crossed Barbaoba ridge and is continuing his march to Colon. He is now at Taverna Ila, where he is resting. The Liberal forces continue to retreat before him. They explain their retreat by saying they have no ammunition. All of the fighting yesterday occurred at Barbaoba bridge. Passengers by the delayed train assert that fully one hundred conservatives were killed and wounded during the fighting there and the Liberal losses were insignificant. The Liberals are now approaching Gatun station, about five miles from Colon, and it is believed a decisive engagement will probably be fought today at Monkey Hill cemetery, distant one mile from the limits of Colon.

HE IS SAFE.

CAPTAIN FERGUSON TURNS UP AT HIS HOME IN COTTONWOOD POINT, ARK.

Captain Jim Ferguson, of the Hallette, who has come into considerable notoriety for the past several days by his disappearing from Mound City, where his boat has just been repaired, has turned up safe and sound at his home in Cottonwood Point Ark. Learning of the sensation his absence had created he at once wired his wife, and others, that he was safe.

It is supposed that Captain Ferguson went down to mine funds to get his boat out. It is understood that there have been some financial difficulties about paying for the work done on her, and it is thought the captain went down to get money, and did not desire any one to know where he had gone.

Accompanying the remains were: Mr. Charles Huckleberry, Mrs. S. C. Hazelwood and daughter, Miss Ernie, Mr. Will Burnley and Mrs. Martin and children. Mrs. Hazelwood, mother-in-law of the deceased, collapsed aboard the boat this morning, and had to be taken back, her condition being such that she was unable to remain and attend the funeral.

KILLS AN ASSAILANT.

CASH WILSON STABS JIM GARY IN DAVIESS COUNTY.

Owensboro, Ky., Nov. 27.—News reaches here of a desperate cutting affray on Brown's Creek, twenty miles from here. Jim Gary, who is said to have been in a hundred fights, undertook to whip a boy named Cash Wilson. Wilson did not resist until Gary had commenced on him, when he drew a spring dirk and cut him three times. Two of the wounds are in the side, and either would have been sufficient to produce death. Wilson has not been arrested.

SOME TIPS

Some Interesting Facts About the Rush Made For the City Offices.

MAKE APPOINTMENTS MONDAY

The Names of Some Who Are Likely to Be Among the Successful Ones.

MARSHALL COLLINS' NEW JOB.

It is probable that the new city council will hold a caucus about Saturday, preparatory to electing officers for the ensuing year. This has always been the custom, and it will probably be observed by the council-elect.

It is expected that the annual election, and the appointment of police officers by Mayor Yeiser, will take place Monday night at the first regular meeting of the new council. The mayor has the privilege of appointing them any time during the month, and has been known to wait until the latter part, but the appointments are expected Monday.

One of the most interesting races of the elective officers is that of city clerk, for which Messrs. Harry Fisher, incumbent and Former Clerk Wm. Patterson are applicants. The race promises to be very close, and both claim it.

There is an effort on foot among members of the council, it is understood, to increase the salary of city engineer to $1800, and get Mr. L. A. Washington, of the city, but now working for a railroad in the south, to take it. The other applicants are the present efficient engineer, Mr. James Wilcox and Mr. W. P. Hopkins, formerly city engineer.

The race for city physician will be an interesting one. There are several applicants, among them being Drs. Lillard Sanders, incumbent; W. T. Graves and J. E. Coyle. It is impossible to guess how this one will terminate.

It is tipped that Mr. J. T. McKinney will be elected keeper of the city hospital.

For city attorney there are two applicants, Attorneys W. A. Berry and M. W. Worton. Mr. Berry will be elected it is said by those who profess to know.

Mr. Thomas W. Baird will be re-elected city weigher.

Mr. S. A. Fowler will be elected wharfmaster. Chief James Woods chief of the fire department, and Mr. W. E. Augustus assistant chief, all at present holding the offices, while Mr. William Porteous will be re-elected sexton of Oak Grove.

Mr. C. E. Richardson will be re-elected city treasurer, and Mr. Gus Rogers, at present deputy sheriff, seems to have a cinch on the city assessorship.

The police appointments are arousing great interest. There are fifty or more applicants, and their friends are all making it interesting for Mayor-elect Yeiser.

It is said that Marshal James Collins will be given Officer Fayette Jones' place on the day force, and be given general supervision over the day officers until at some time after the city goes into the second class, when he will be made general police chief. Officer Jones will be jailed after January 1 and Officer Crow city marshal, leaving two vacancies.

Captain Henry Bailey and Lieutenant T. J. Moore will be re-appointed. Among the officers who are certain to be re-appointed are Officers Charles Hart, Ed Clark, Tom Orr, Frank Harlan, Mike Dugan, Guy Nance, L. P. Raso, Henry Singery, Emil Courieux, Tom Potter, Jules Friant, Fayette Houser and Wm. Beadles. One of the new police officers will be Mr. B. F. Farrow, who is in forced by all the labor union in the city.

Mr. George Gardner will probably be re-elected sewerage inspector.

There are many applicants for the position of driver of the patrol wagon, which is filled by the council. Mr. Al Townsend will be made assistant of the changing, the position he now holds, and Mr. Joe Woods, the present overseer, will be re-appointed to some position, to the place of overseer, if not something better.

Mr. J. M. Keel will be license inspector.

The place of market master is one sought by a great many, and it is not decided who will get it. It is understood that Market Master Hays has a good chance for re-appointment.

It is understood that the race for street inspector is between Messrs. Will Utterback, James Eaker and Joe Woods.

Lockup Keeper Menifee is tipped as a sure winner for reappointment.

Mr. Frank Smedley, ex-police officer, will no doubt get a place under the administration, but what it is does not seem to be settled.

PROMINENT MAN

Mr. F. M. Thomas Dies at Fulton, Kentucky.

HE WAS AN EX-CONFEDERATE SOLDIER—

Leaves Several Children, All Well Known.

Fulton, Ky., Nov. 27.—Mr. F. M. Thomas died at his residence here yesterday at the advanced age of 74 years. He had been ill with a complication of diseases for over a year, but had been confined to his room only two months prior to his demise.

Deceased leaves four children to mourn him. They are Attorneys Ed and Wayne Thomas, and Mrs. Isaac Brann, of this city, and Attorney Gus Thomas, of Mayfield, all of whom were at the house of their father when death came.

While he was not associated with any religious or fraternal order Mr. Thomas was kind hearted and generous, always willing to divide with a friend or anyone whom he knew to be in need.

He was born March 16, 1827, in Mt. Pleasant, Murray county, Tenn. He went to Graves county, Ky., at the age of 17 years. In 1860 he set up the first business house ever in Fulton, and sold the first piece of property ever disposed of here. He afterwards left Fulton and remained away several years, returning again in 1883. He then engaged in business for four years, from which time he has been a citizen of this place. His name is also connected with other early enterprises of our city.

The funeral took place at the residence at 10 o'clock this morning. Services will be conducted by Rev. E. M. Waits and Rev. R. A. Cooke, and burial in the City cemetery by the side of those of his wife.

COLLEGE DESKS.

CONTRACT LET FOR 150 TO THE COLUMBIA COMPANY.

Mr. J. M. Slaven, agent for the School Furniture Supply Co., of Chicago, did not receive the contract for the desks for the Lone Oak schools but the contract was awarded a local man representing the Columbia Co. About 150 desks will be bought at about $2.00 per desk. The desks purchased by the school board for the primary grades here were furnished by the same people and have so far given the best of satisfaction. Prof. C. A. Norval is the agent for the house.

The order for the desks will be placed soon and the college ready for occupancy.

The boxes will all be placed on the side where the money order department now is, and the mail department in the north end of the building. This will make it very convenient, and the improvements will be attractive as well as substantial, and will cost about $5,000.

Postmaster Fisher has been thinking of the changes for some time past, and the inspector readily agreed that they are very advisable. He will make the recommendations at once, and it is probable the work will begin in the spring.

The eagle is only half as dear to the American heart as the double eagle is.

FINE WORK

Inspector Holmes Compliments the Job at the Government Building.

HE INSPECTED IT THOROUGHLY

He Will Recommend Some Very Important Changes at the Postoffice Floor.

COST WILL BE ABOUT $5,000

Inspector J. C. Holmes of the treasury department, Washington, was in the city yesterday afternoon and inspected the work recently done at the government building by Capt. J. E. Williamson, who had the contract for constructing the wall on the north side, and the driveway of vitrified brick about the building. Mr. Holmes was greatly pleased with the work, and stated that he never saw a better job anywhere, which is a deserved recognition of the excellent workmanship performed under Capt. Williamson's supervision.

While he was not associated with any religious or fraternal order Mr. Thomas was kind hearted and generous, always willing to divide with a friend or anyone whom he knew to be in need.

He was born March 16, 1827, in Mt. Pleasant, Murray county, Tenn. He went to Graves county, Ky., at the age of 17 years. In 1860 he set up the first business house ever in Fulton, and sold the first piece of property ever disposed of here. He afterwards left Fulton and remained away several years, returning again in 1883. He then engaged in business for four years, from which time he has been a citizen of this place. His name is also connected with other early enterprises of our city.

The funeral took place at the residence at 10 o'clock this morning. Services will be conducted by Rev. E. M. Waits and Rev. R. A. Cooke, and burial in the City cemetery by the side of those of his wife.

A DAILY THOUGHT.

It is not work that kills men; it is worry. Work is healthy; you can hardly put more upon a man than he can bear. Worry is rust upon the blade. It is not the revolution that destroys the machinery, but the friction.

—Beecher.

OPEN IT TO ALL.

It is understood that several architects, among them a New York firm, who desire to submit plans for the new library building, have been informed that no one but local architects will be allowed to compete. This is a little hasty. Nothing should be done until the committee meets Friday and decides that its former action shifting out everybody but two or three local architects was ill advised, and reconsider it. The competition should be opened to everybody. Local architects can without doubt draw plans that would be satisfactory in every respect, but some other architect may submit plans that will be more acceptable, and if adopted would give the city a building that the people would like better. Paducah wants the best and prettiest building possible to get, and if local architects design it, we will be the more proud of it. If some one else can offer better plans, the latter should be accepted. This is a business proposition, not a matter of sentiment. There is yet another danger lurking in this haste. No architect can draw complete plans for such an elaborate structure in the length of time specified by the committee. Only sketches can be submitted, and it will be impossible to make a correct estimate of the cost of a building from sketches. Suppose the sketches selected by the committee should be for a building that it would be discovered when bids were opened could not be built for the amount of money the city will have to pay for it? $30,000? The city would then have to pay the balance, or work would be suspended until such time as the residue could be accumulated. The city will have no money to spend on the building. It will be difficult enough for her to find the funds with which to pay for the site and the building must cost only what the city will have to pay for it. The people do not want any hitch. It is plain, therefore, that the proper thing for the library committee to do is to reconsider its previous action, extend the time to a reasonable period for drawing the plans, open the competition to all, and notify those architects who have signified a desire to draw plans as well as all others, that their plans will be considered. This will give the city the best that is to be had for the money, which is all that is asked.

The officers of the law, backed up by the militia, have had a chance to suppress the mining trouble in Hopkins county. Why didn't they do it? If they are incompetent, they should resign, or wire the governor to that effect, and have other and better men sent to suppress a gang composed principally of reports of roughs and toughs, but been in camp among the abiding, hard working people, setting only to intimidate and injure. There have been several murders and other kinds of lawlessness resulting from the camp, which for weeks was unmolested by authorities that are sworn to prevent such outrages. Finally the situation became so serious that the courts were appealed to, and the courts decided that the miners had no right to maintain the camp, and ordered them to disperse. The whole thing, from that time on, has been a fiasco. The miners, evidently thinking themselves safe on account of a public sentiment that will not sanction the use of unnecessary force, especially on people who exhibit such signs of weak-mindedness, defied the law and the courts, and finally had to be driven from the camp. Instead of remaining where they could prevent the re-establishment of another camp, the soldiers went back to their quarters and the miners, back to their old rendezvous. The same thing may now have to be gone through with again, with the possibility of more disastrous results. The soldiers should have broken up the camp, and remained on the alert, and prevented the miners from again assembling, there or anywhere else, or dispersing them as rapidly as they congregated in any one place. If such ridiculous capers are carried on longer, Kentucky will soon be the laughing stock of the whole country. Let's have this foolishness stopped, and the idle, trouble-breeding, law-defying miners taught how to behave, if they have to be run entirely out of the state in order to do it.

The ministers of other governments evidently think that the United States is able to do almost anything. There have been repeated unofficial appeals to this government to stop the Boer war, but nothing can be done. The more conservative people of this country are not in favor of the United States becoming involved in any more fights. Our experience in the Spanish war was enough.

The Democrats have announced through their leader in the house of representatives that they will make a fight for a reduction of the tariff, for a reduction in the war revenue, and will combine with any one or anything to fight the trusts. Senator Stewart proposes to essay a settlement of the anarchist question by stricter naturalization laws. Congress meets Monday.

The Holland submarine boat with officers and crew, successfully remained for fifteen hours under water, and could have remained indefinitely. It is a great invention, and may revolutionize naval warfare.

The sports who tried to break the Bank of Liverpool would make good leaders for Tammany. They demonstrated their inferiority to Tammany, however, by leaving the building.

The agitation for one session of the Paducah schools will never amount to anything. The school board has never yet been up-to-date enough for that.

The police have their salaries raised. Now, if they just had their appointments they could celebrate Thanksgiving in true style.

KENTUCKY THIEVES

CAUGHT AT CAIRO.

Cairo, Nov. 27.—Patsy Wade, a colored woman, the companion of Grant Taylor, the hold-up man, was at police headquarters with a telescope crammed full of wearing apparel, part of which she confessed was the property of Dr. and Mrs. Peck at Arlington, Ky. The woman was arrested and was taken back by Marshal Tom Warden, together with Taylor. Dr. Peck lost between $60 and $70 worth of goods, including a watch, which was found at the Union bakery, where it had been sold to a baker.

The people are rejoicing accordingly.

RECOMMENDS IT TO TRAINMEN.

G. H. Hausan, Lima, O., engineer L. E. and W. railroad, writes: "I have been troubled a great deal with backache. I was induced to try Foley's Kidney Cure, and one bottle entirely relieved me. I gladly recommend it to any one, especially my friends among the trainmen, who are usually similarly afflicted."

FURTHER DETAILS OF THE

GARRISON CREEK WRECK

YESTERDAY.

Engine No. 31 will be brought to the city today from Clark's Station, where it now stands on the main line, all the other trains being forced to go around on a side track.

The engine is in a pretty bad condition although not so badly damaged as it might have been. It climbed into an empty coal car after running through a caboose and a box car. Only the trucks of the engine remain on the track and the body of the iron monster is firmly wedged in the coal car. No attempt to extricate the engine will be made until Paducah is reached and the transportation of the wrecked engine here will be a delicate affair requiring the most careful attention. The caboose, a freight car and coal car fell into the creek bed and burned and the wires of the Cumberland Telephone Co. were turned into line in the conflagration.

Lineman O'Bryan of the Postal Service Telegraph Co., left this morning to set the company wires right, several having been badly stretched in hauling the ropes over them in handling the wreck yesterday.

The first train broke in two after the hill had been partially ascended and the broken portion began to fall back at a rapid speed and met the rest train about in the middle of the trestle. The engine men jumped before the collision and were saved from serious injury.

WICKLIFFE WATERWORKS.

WILL BE COMPLETED BY DEC.

15—COST WILL BE $1,000.

Wickliffe, Ky., Nov. 27.—Messrs. Gannon and Burke, Cairo, contractors for the new water works plant at this place, are making satisfactory progress with the work, and should there be no great delay in getting pipe or hindrance by bad weather, they will be able to comply with their contract for completion of the work by December 15. The authorities, however, rather anticipate an extension of time as the work will not be hurriedly done in slipshod fashion.

The capacity of the reservoir at the pump house is 40,000 gallons, while the standpipe is expected to have a capacity of about 50,000 gallons. The total cost of the plant ready for service is estimated at $12,000.

In sinking the well, the contractors struck what they hoped would prove an abundant supply of water, clear as crystal, "pure as the mountain dew," without a trace of mineral substance. A few days since a test pump and machinery was made to demonstrate its working capacity as well as to test supply of water. The result was eminently satisfactory. In a run of eight hours at only an average speed of engines, the flow was at rate of 100 gallons per minute, without any apparent diminution in water supply at close of test.

Geo. A. Points, Upper Sandusky,

O., writes: "I have been using Foley's Honey and Tar for hoarseness, and find it the best remedy I ever tried. It stopped the cough immediately, and relieved all soreness. Take none but Foley's."

WILL LEAD.

THE KAISER WILL HEAD TROOPS

IN CASE OF WAR.

Berlin, Nov. 27.—According to the Lokal Anzeiger Emperor William, while addressing naval recruits at Kiel, said among other things: "I desire war as little as did my lamented grandfather, who however, when war was thrust upon him, set off at the head of the army and shared in its hardships and dangers."

Then, expressing a hope that the recruits would be true to their oath and show themselves worthy of their fathers in 1870-71, the emperor said: "If I must lead you in war, you must not think that the emperor has not ordered well, for soldiers must often perform arduous service; but I have taken my soldier's oath like yourselves, and I must perform my duty like yourselves, each in his place."

Seymour Webb, Moira, N. Y., writes: "I had been troubled with my kidneys for twenty-five years, and had tried several physicians, but received no relief until I bought a bottle of Foley's Kidney Cure. After using two bottles I was absolutely cured. I earnestly recommend Foley's Kidney Cure." Take only Foley's.

Observations ...at Random

A well known school teacher tells an amusing experience she had with an invitation recently sent her by a friend to attend a reception. The lady who was delegated to invite her simply sent word by her little daughter, who is in the teacher's room.

"Mamma says Mrs. B— wants to see you at 4 o'clock tomorrow afternoon" was the way the child put the invitation. The teacher did not understand it. She thought Mrs. B— was simply some one who wanted to see her about why her darling son didn't learn any faster, while Willie got kept in so much, or why Sally got her face so dirty every time she went to school.

So the teacher replied: "You tell Mrs. B— that if she wants to see me, she can find me here any time after 8 o'clock in the morning, or after 1 in the afternoon. She will have to come to me. I haven't time to go to her."

The lady was very much disappointed when she found that the teacher was conspicuously absent from the reception and when she met her a few days after, and expressed her disappointment, was astonished when the teacher declared she had received no invitation. When the "other" explained by whom it had been sent it flashed through the teacher's mind that an amusing mistake had been made, and the joke was on her. Fortunately the child had failed to deliver to the intended hostess the teacher's reply, so the hostess never knew how the teacher styled her "regrets."

"I notice that a number of cows are dying all over this section," remarked a farmer yesterday, "from eating corn stalks. It is not the fault of the corn, nor of the cow, but of the fool man who turns his stock into a field and allows it to eat as long as it pleases."

"You might say in the paper that if they would turn it in say half an hour the first day, three quarters the next, an hour the next, and so on, the corn would not hurt them. Otherwise they will die, when turned into a field indefinitely. The corn has nothing to do with it."

A pleasant looking young man to have so many troubles, and who could tell you a heart-breaking story as long as the moral law if he had time, is Mr. Lee Hood, the genial treasurer of The Kentucky. It is not every fellow we newspaper people call "genial" who is necessarily genial, but Mr. Hood is really genial. He presides at the box office, humors the various kinds and conditions of people who call at the office and make all kinds of demands, complaints and sometimes threats, but he never loses his equanimity. He got his training in a hotel, where the clerk comes in contact with the oddest set of kickers, the drummers. Treasurer Hood certainly lives the strenuous life when he is on duty, and if he had a photograph and a camera, and could record everything said and picture everything seen, he could give a stereoscopic exhibition that would knock all predecessors into a cocked hat.

Among those who will regret the retirement from office of Mayor James M. Lang will be the newspaper boys, for he is their friend on all occasions. No one will more sincerely regret to see him step down and out than the reporters who have daily called at his office for four years past for the crumbs of information that he had to give around. He has ever been kind, considerate and grateful, and never too busy to let them in. Many times when the work was piled up on his desk many feet high and he was locked in quietly trying to finish it, he would get up to answer the hattering challenge of some persistent reporter who had discovered him through the keyhole. He never refused them admission, and never refused to treat them with respect and affability, and for this he has the thanks and respect of every reporter who has seen service in Paducah during his administration. Mayor Lang is one of those officials whom reporters like to know, and while he has often caught them in them, he has yet to find one who betrayed his confidence. He is never in bad humor, always ready and willing to do them a good turn, and has helped them out many a dull day when there was not an item of importance in sight. It is a cold day in midsummer when he can't stir up an item of some kind, and the reporters are in sore straits, for Mayor-Elect Yeiser is a nice fellow, and all that, he "won't tell you a d— thing," as one reporter, with more than necessary emphasis, declared not long ago.

The county clerk has a great many funny experiences with the matrimonially inclined. The other day a colored man came in with $2 and a desire to marry a girl named "Lizzie." The license was issued and recorded. He came back in a few days, and after stammering and coughing rather suspiciously, reluctantly drew from his pocket the license issued to himself and "Lizzie," handed it over and said he wanted it changed to one for "Mary."

The clerk informed him that if he wanted another license, it would cost him another $2, whether he used the first one or not. The darky scratched his head in perplexity and finally said: "Well, white man, gimme dem li-

Mercury AND Potash

Everybody knows that Mercury is a dangerous medicine, even when administered in very small doses, and few constitutions can stand it for any length of time. Potash produces inflammation of the stomach and bowels, and a dangerous form of dyspepsia and often chronic diarrhea follow its use.

Now, the doctors will tell you if you have Contagious Blood Poison you must take these minerals for two years or longer; first, a course of Mercury, and when your teeth get so sensitive and sore that you can't eat, and the gums have a spongy, unnatural appearance, you are told to stop and a change to Potash is made. When the stomach rebels you are put on Mercury again, and so on ad infinitum, or until the system becomes so thoroughly saturated with these poisonous drugs that the most disgusting sores break out on the bones become diseased, and the muscles and joints are racked with the most torturing pains. Mercury and Potash drive the eruptions and blotches from the skin, but the virus remains in the blood and the reappearance of the old symptoms and the occasional sore mouth show that the poison is still active, and you can never hope to completely eradicate it by this method of treatment.

When I was about twenty-one years of age, or eighteen years ago, I contracted Blood Poison in a bad form, and am satisfied that the rapid progress the disease was making would soon have made me a life-long invalid or ended my life. As my system came under the influence of S. B. S., the sores, spots, blotches and pimples gradually disappeared and soon no evidence of the disease was left. I am now thirty-nine years old, and have seen no signs of it during the past eighteen years. S. B. S. does all you claim for it.

S. B. S. is the only purely vegetable blood purifier known, and we offer $1,000 for proof that it contains any mineral ingredient whatever. The general health improves as the Specific purges the system of impurities, and as new, rich blood begins to flow in the veins the unsightly sores and other evidences of blood poison disappear; strength returns and you are forever rid of this loathsome disease. Our Home Treatment Book on Contagious Blood Poison tells you all about the symptoms, different stages, etc., of this disease. We will mail you a copy free. If you need advice or special directions, write our physicians; it will cost you nothing and may hasten your cure. THE SWIFT SPECIFIC CO., ATLANTA, GA.

Modest Womanhood

A becoming modesty keeps many afflicted women from consulting a doctor about female diseases and the fear of an unnecessary surgical operation keeps many others away. In this way the poor suffering woman who longs for relief but shrinks from seeking it, gives up in despair. But hundreds of thousands of women in this country to-day, like Mrs. Steele, know that there is no need of giving up—that there is a positive home cure for female diseases within the reach of every modest woman.

WINE OF CARDUI

made life worth living for Mrs. Steele, when the best doctors in Illinois could not help her without an operation from which she recoiled with horror. If you are despondent, suffering female ills and bearing pain, go to your druggist and buy a bottle of Wine of Cardui. It will relieve you.

Peoria, Ill., April 5, 1901. I have been a sufferer every month since I have been a woman and have been treated by the best doctors and found no relief. The last doctor wanted me to go to the hospital and have my ovaries removed. He said: "This is the only remedy I can see for you, Mrs. Steele." "No, no, I will not," I said. Then I found a Ladies' Birthday Almanac and this is the way I found relief and I am not bothered up by the doctor. I don't wait for my woman friends to see my advertisement, but I go and tell them. I can't speak good enough for this wonderful Wine of Cardui. I am a strong woman and do all my work and ride my bicycle. I send word to ladies I hear are suffering and I saved one lady from losing her baby by giving her Wine of Cardui. Mrs. B. M. STEELE.

All druggists sell $1.00 bottles. For advice and literature, address, giving symptoms, "The Ladies' Advisory Department," The Chattanooga Medicine Company, Chattanooga, Tenn.

SPRAINED HIS ANKLE.

Mayor Jas. M. Lang, while hunting near Tola yesterday, had the misfortune to sprain an ankle. He is able to be at his office today, however, and is still engaged in writing his report.

"The success of the season" is a press agent's favorite mode of expressing the elegance of his theatrical wars, it can be used in an entirely apt and truthful sense in describing the engagement of Miss Henrietta Crossman at the Kentucky next Monday night. As "Mistress Nell" in the play, in which she will be seen here, she was literally the success of the last New York season for over seven months, and it was a success that had its sensational side. She went into New York with her good work in the Frohman and Daly companies forgotten, and opened at a minor theatre. Next morning, so remarkable were the newspaper criticisms, that she was the artistic sensation. Her popularity so grew that she became a fashionable fad, and the theatre at Mecca for exclusive society. Alan Dale in the New York Journal spoke of her work as "a shock of pleasure." The New York World said that she "fairly dazzled the town," while another paper stated that "she carried the audience off its feet." Miss Crossman and her play will prove a revelation to local play-goers. Seats go on sale Friday morning.

NERVOUS DYSPEPSIA.

A CURE FOR IT—NOT A PATENT CURE-ALL, NOR A MODERN MIRACLE, BUT SIMPLY A RATIONAL CURE FOR DYSPEPSIA.

In these days of humbuggery and deception, the manufacturers of patent medicines, as a rule, seem to think their medicines will not sell unless they claim that it will cure every disease under the sun. And they never think of leaving out dyspepsia and stomach troubles. They are sure to claim that their nostrum is absolutely certain to cure every dyspeptic, and he need look no further.

In the face of these absurd claims it is refreshing to note that the proprietors of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets have carefully refrained from making undue claims or false representations regarding the merits of this most excellent remedy for dyspepsia and stomach troubles. They make but one claim for it, and that is, that for indigestion and various stomach troubles Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets is a radical cure. They go no further than this, and any man or woman suffering from indigestion, chronic nervous dyspepsia who will give the remedy a trial will find that nothing is claimed for it that the facts will not fully sustain.

It is a modern discovery, composed of harmless vegetable ingredients acceptable to the weakest or most delicate stomach. Its great success in curing stomach troubles is due to the fact that it will digest whatever wholesome food is taken into the stomach, no matter whether the stomach is in good working order or not. It treats the overworked organs and replenishes the body, the blood, the nerves, creating a healthy appetite, gives refreshing sleep and the blessings which always accompany a good digestion and proper assimilation of food.

In using Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets no dieting is required. Simply eat plenty of wholesome food and take these Tablets at each meal, thus assisting and resting the stomach, which rapidly regains its proper digestive power, when the Tablets will be no longer required.

Nervous dyspepsia is simply a condition in which some portion or portions of the nervous system are not properly nourished. Good digestion invigorates the nervous system and every organ in the body.

Any druggist will tell you Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets give universal satisfaction.

AT THE KENTUCKY.

Tonight at The Kentucky Mr. Creston Clarke and his supporting company will present "Don Caesar de Bazan."

None among the younger generation of American players stands higher in popular esteem than does Mr. Clarke; and in Paducah especially he is regarded as an established and particular favorite. His interpretations in seasons past have been described in these columns as efficient, thorough and worthy of the highest commendation; and the manner in which he has staged his plays, each being provided with complete and historically correct scenery and accessories, has earned for him deserved reputation as a producer in the true sense of the word. This year Mr. Clarke announces new costumes, new scenic effects and an enlarged and strengthened company, that will assure even better performances than he has been wont to give.

His production of "Don Caesar de Bazan" is regarded as one of the most pronounced successes of his career, and in it both Mr. Clarke and his company are seen at their best. The performance deserves and should receive the patronage of all who desire to witness a grand play presented by a distinguished artist and competent cast, with all the elaboration of scenic detail that characterizes a notable production.
